The case of Rice against the Mayville and Lexington Turnpike Co., wherein Rice asks $15,000 damages for the loss of an eye, was decided last week in favor of the Company.

NEARLY 400 applications have been made at Lexington, for carriers to the mail delivery system soon to be inaugurated. The position pays $600 per carrier per annum.

In our City Council doesn't seem make a new side-walk from Pleasant street to the depot, the dear people will not love them any more. And, too, it is not long before the election.

BEN KENDLE, of Pennsylvania, and Nathan Baynes, of Paris, horse men, had a physical discussion of small proportions at the Holiday Show on Monday evening.—[Flemingsburg Times Democrat.]

Three Georgia girls took several eggs a whisky straight apiece, and then got a buggy and started to a party. When discovered they were lying in a fancy corner, while a blacksmith held an inquest over the remains of the buggy.

The round trip fare to the Music Festival over the K. C. line will be $3.20.

Special trains will leave Covington at 12.30 on the nights of 1st and 3rd. Half-fare tickets will be sold on special days.

The hanging of Neal and Craft in the near future, will be a terrible blow to the Kentucky press. Nothing smaller than Press Convention will then rally it from the inevitable languor which follows a death.

HON. K. F. FAIRBANKS has been recently employed to prosecute the Neal and Craft cases when they are tried. He is one of the ablest criminal lawyers in the state, and will make it very hot for defense.

An indelicate kitchen stove exploded in Chicago the other day and killed a servant girl. If she had been at her usual place on the door-step talking to her dear Charles Augustus, she might now be a happier girl.

The Lexington Press tells of a Fayette county colored woman who has borne seven children in three and a half years, and is the mother of fifteen children altogether. She surprises her dear "chubby" with twins and triplets alternately.

One day last week, when a Millersburg man paid as two dollars for a five dollar advertisement, he turned his back to us when he handed us over the money, remarking at the time that "he didn't want to see it pass out his hands." He's a regular louse-dollar-two's.

The long-talked-of Sweeney and Deiter debate has been going on at Horse Cave for a week. For the past two years there has been a protracted warfare between the Christian and Methodist churches there, and this debate has been gotten up to settle it. Will it do it?

One day last week twenty-four dynamite cartridges exploded simultaneously on the K. C. extension two miles from here, and the concussion was so great that it shook every house in town. The cartridges were laid in the cut to thaw, and as no one was near, it is supposed that a rock fell from the thawing and crumbling bank above and caused the explosion.

An old lady in Hartwell, Ga., has made all the necessary preparations for her burial except the coffin. She has a black silk dress, all the necessary under-clothing, a cap, gloves, etc., even has a cake of perfumed soap, wash rag, and a towel for washing her body, and a candle nearly two feet long, which she has had since the war, and which is to afford light for the watchers when she lies in state.

Mr. Wm. Shaw, the proprietor of the justly celebrated Paris Flour Mills, has invented, patented and put in operation a self-acting grain cleaner, which is operated by means of the laws of gravitation and force of impact and the weight of grain descending on a wheel of cups similar to an over-shot water-wheel. It is simple, durable, and of cheap manufacture, and is destined to find its way into all warehouses and at an early day. Mr. Shaw will probably not manufacture the machines for sale, but will sell the patent to some large manufacturers of millers' supplies.

Odd Fellow's Opera House.

On next Thursday night, February 1st, L. H. Havlin's popular and talented Fogg's Ferry Combination will occupy the Opera House producing for the first time here C. E. Callahan's romantic and picturesque Comedy-Drama the latest New York success and reigning sensation of the season "Fogg's Ferry" with the brilliant young vocalist comedienne Miss Carrie Stuart in her sparkling character creation and superb rendition of "Chip" the ferryman's daughter, supported by a company of rare excellence and ability and acknowledged metropolis reputation. No play recently given to the dramatic world has achieved in so short a space of time such deservedly wide-spread popularity, no star so completely captivated audiences by her sprightly and vivacious acting as the winsome little lady in the character role of "Chip" (Miss Carrie Stuart), so ex-ayances. Although "Fogg's Ferry" is usually associated with such plays as "My Partner" "The Dainties" and "M. Lisa," yet it is only similar to them in being located in the far West. It is a more refined comedy, and dwells more in the humorous and eccentric phases of human nature. It is brimful of charming bits of humor, pathos and sentiment, the characters are clear cut, and well defined and the plot with exquisite interest turns upon the career of a little girl who through her early training simply leads the charm to the refined character which adorns the sequel, and has been very aptly described by a St. Louis paper as an "American Fanchon." Don't fail to see "Fogg's Ferry." Admission 50 cts Reserved seats 75 cts on call at Brooks & Lyman's.

MILLERSBURG.

Measles in town again.

Owing to extreme cold weather, Alex. McClintock's Jerseys were not shipped until Saturday, and will probably arrive here today.

Young men are growing exceedingly scarce in town and in the precinct, and a consequent ill in society results, and a state of desolation.

Miss May Ratson, formerly of this town, and one of the largest and apparently stouter ladies ever raised in the town, is now lingering in the last stages of consumption, at Dublin, Ind.

Chas. Clark offered Mr. Tabb, on the McClelland farm, 141 cents per pound all around for his tobacco, which was refused.

Looking to extreme cold weather, Alex. McClintock's Jerseys were not shipped until Saturday, and will probably arrive here today.

Harry Orr, formerly of this place, visited his old home last week. Himself and partner did $40,000 worth of business in their dry goods house in Georgetown last year. Their store room is 150 feet long, 35 broad, and 17 feet from floor to ceiling.

The probabilities are that the Purnell House is rented. Last week, Mr. Long of Midway, was down here and looked at the premises, and made a finale offer of $700 per annum rent. On Saturday, Mrs. Purnell authorized a letter written, which accepted the proposition.

Early Monday morning the small house occupied by Will Feaback, opposite Mike Thornton's, burned down, as did also the blacksmith's shop and another small building belonging to John Moel's. The residence where John A. Miller lives and some stables were barely saved.

John W. Jones has placed his business in the hands of his brother F. A. Jones, for settlement, and will leave this place for Arkansas, where he will probably locate with Fleet Jones on a farm. The entire stock of furniture, silverware, jewelry, books, notions, &c., will be sold out at once immediately. Now is the time to secure bargains.

J. G. Allen, of this place, has received a letter from Henry S. Block, of Providence, R. I., stating that he had recently married Miss Julia Tucker, Jr., of Paris. The bride and groom are quartered at the Narragansett House. The letter was a mere business letter concerning the business of the late Mrs. Grosjean, of Paris, of which Mr. Allen is the Executor, and no particulars of the wedding were given.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Edwin Booth appeared at Berlin Tuesday night as King Lear. He was called before the curtain eighteen times.

Shelly M. Collum, Governor of Illinois, and United States Senator-elect, was born in Wayne county; Kentucky.

Mr. Barnes says: "The fight with the devil goes steadily on at the Rink. Very decided progress since my last, Fraise the Lord."

The song of "somebody's coming, when the dew-drops fall," has now been substituted by the new song, "Somebody's coming when the note falls due."

A Georgia photographer advertises that small-pox is abroad in the land and the people had better let him make them some pictures before they are pock-marked.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

New hemp continues to bring $4.50 per hundred weight.

Don Stewart, near Hutchinson, sold his crop of tobacco at 8 cents all around.

The Frank Massie farm sold Saturday, to R. B. Hufferd, for $62.50 per acre.

A Crittenden county pot hunter boasts of having killed twenty-five quails at one shot.

James G. Owens, of Mayville, was in town yesterday, and bought from Joseph A. Hoverton, his crop of 20,000 pounds of tobacco, for 124 cents, all around.

This is probably the best sale that has been made in Bourbon this season.

Mr. James Weeks, of Fayette county, refined $1,000, offered by John W. Lell, or the seven-year-old trotting horse, Bailey, by Lexington, hand by Joe Downing, by Alexander's Edward Forrest; second dam a Gray Eagle mare. Bailey won a race last fall at Fairmount, easily getting away from his competitors and making the mile in 2:45.

The offerings in the tobacco market in Cincinnati last week were, 1,451 hogheads and 11 boxes, against 1,001 hogheads and 11 boxes week before, and 803 hogheads and 35 boxes for the same time last year. The average price of offerings last week, was $9.70 against $9.60 for last year. There is a scarcity of fancy tobacco offered, and buyers bid freely on that class. The old is gradually decreasing, and the new is coming forward liberal from all districts. The prices have remained firm, specially on low grades of fancy tobacco—one hoghead selling for $22.50. Coloso Truss farm at 5:73.

Mrs. Kate Penn, mother of Ira Penn, died Saturday, after a protracted illness.

News was received by telegraph here yesterday morning from James Davis in New York, that Otto Holstein, formerly of this city, died suddenly there yesterday morning. No particulars given. Mr. Holstein had a host of friends here; particularly among the horsemen. He was editor of the Breeder's Gazette, with headquarters at Lexington, and had but recently moved in from Chicago, where he located last fall after his marriage to Miss Gilmán, sister of O. A. Gilmán, of this place. The news of Mr. Holstein's death was received with quite a shock by his many friends here.

Jack Hughes, formerly of Carlisle, Ky., died of a brain disease, caused by overwork, in Denver, Colorado, on Jan. 21st. He migrated from Carlisle to St. Joseph, Mo., in 1857, and from there to Denver in 1862, where he soon afterward amassed a great fortune and embarked in various gigantic enterprises, to which he was ever attentive in the minutest detail. Against the advice of physicians, he never relaxed his energies, until stroke after stroke compelled him to succumb to the inevitable. The first heavy stroke fell upon him in New York seven years ago, from which times strokes heavy and light have alternated until death claimed its victim.

The Denver News says of him: "Generosity was a marked trait in his character. He seemed hardly able to deny any charitable call. If a friend was in financial straits he helped him, if it lay in his power. He was domestic in his nature and devoted to his family. He will long be remembered by the first settlers of the territory as a man of the strictest fidelity to his business engagements, and a generous neighbor and a steadfast friend."

the merits of this celebrated remedy, as find it a genuine article of rare value. It by no means a new remedy. The establishment which produces it dates its manufacture as far back as 1833, since which time has been steadily growing in public favor. The patentees are among the foremost business men of the city of Lockport. They are every way reliable.

From the Toledo (Ohio) Blade, July 6, 1877.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL.—This O standard article, under the admirable management of John Hodge, Esq., has reached an enormous sale. It is an honestly compounded article; it has merit, and now the best business talent of the country handling it, there is no reason why it should not double its present usefulness. No family can afford to be without it. For family use as well as for animals, it is simply indispensable.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All we ask is a fair trial, but be sure to follow directions.
